

CALL FOR CANDIDATES

WABC JCL Wants You!

We are searching for qualified JCL delegates to apply for positions as officers for next year's JCL planning and convention. Being a JCL officer is a great opportunity for delegates to plan and take charge of the convention as student leaders. Elected officers are given considerable power in deciding how the convention is run. If you think you have great ideas for next year's convention and leadership skills comparable to Julius Caesar, you are strongly encouraged to apply for candidacy. Applicants will make a short speech at this year's convention extolling their qualifications. Next, a general election will be held. Please have in mind that holding a JCL office is an honor and will require sincere commitment and energy. There will be at least two mandatory meetings, but most of your work will be done via email. If you are interested in any of the positions described below or have more questions, please contact current JCL parliamentarian Emma Toth or Rick Winterstein, JCL State Chair.

Duties of the President

The President shall preside at all meetings and assemblies; be responsible for the state convention program; appoint committees and coordinate their activities; work with the state chair to prepare for meetings and the convention; and maintain correspondence with fellow officers.
